All railroad tickets bought of D. W. Bushnell are guaranteed, also all rebate orders given by him.
In the police court yesterday, Judge Ayresworth discharged Moses Wise and fined Malzahm $5 and costs.
The Council Bluffs association of Congregational churches meets in Creston today, the session to last three days.

Eugene Leigh, of Minneapolis, has arrived here with three running horses, which he put in training at the driving park.

One horse in drawing dirt yesterday got so badly mired near the dummy track that other horses had to be used to pull him out.

Bone-dust and grass seed were being scattered in Bayless park yesterday in the hope of soon covering the bald spots with verdure.

The C. B. & Q. now runs out a local express, leaving here at 5:45 every morning, and reaching Chicago about 5 o'clock the next morning.

How about the dogs? The number of those who wear muzzles grows less and less. Wasn't there a proclamation some time ago about the matter?

Work has commenced on the power building of the electric light company. Wires are being stretched and it looks as if soon the 75 lights would be all blazing.

The river has cut into the bank so at Henton's, that the K. C. road has put a new track a long distance from the river, the old section being in danger of being washed away.

A reception was tendered Rev. Dr. Cleland last evening at the residence of John T. Baldwin, thus giving the doctor's many friends an opportunity to greet him again socially.

John Ahlos and John Bates had a little difficulty, which resulted in Ahlos getting his eyes blacked yesterday. Bates was brought before Justice Schurz, pleaded guilty and was fined $5 and costs.

Cuff Johnson, who has been wanted some time for carrying concealed weapons, resisting an officer, etc., having broken and run when arrested by Officer Beswick some weeks ago, was captured yesterday.

It is a matter of regret that Mrs. Baxter was unable to appear here Sunday night with her promised lecture. She says she will yet give Council Bluffs a date, although there is a pressing demand for her time elsewhere.

Justice Abbott yesterday fined Mike Brennan $10 and cost for getting drunk, his landlady, Mrs. Billups, making complaint against him. She also charged him with getting board under false pretenses, but this was settled.

The case of Charles Jones, arrested for stealing money packages from the express company at Neola, comes up before Justice Vaughan today. Neola folks are much interested in this case, and Jones' friends are standing by him strongly.

To-night at 8 o'clock a free entertainment will be given to young men of the Y. M. C. A., No. 12 North Main street. All should endeavor to be present. Entertainment of this kind are held weekly, and thus far they have been most interesting and profitable. The exercises will be both musical and literary.

It looks out that a confidence game was turned at the transfer last Friday, which was not reported. The amount involved was only $20. It is said that one of the new police was just boasting that now there would be no tricks turned in town, when two fellows came up to him with a complaint that they had just loined a man $20 on a $1,000 check. Soon after two of the most notorious confidence men in this section of the country passed him, but he failed to recognize them.

Mrs. Benson's barn was removed yesterday by the city marshal and a force of men, it having been declared a nuisance. After months of litigation, and having been carried to the supreme court, was finally decided against her.

While the assessments of personal property are being equalized, the railway property should not be overlooked. One Bise reader, who has been looking over the facts lately shown up in its columns, inquires about the Pullman cars, and whether the sleepers which are here are taxed at all or not? Respectfully referred to the board of equalization.

Joe Huffman, who was arrested on a charge of burglary, he having had some trouble with a neighbor, on which some windows were broken, was yesterday brought up before Justice Schurz on another charge preferred by the same parties, this being assault with intent to commit rape, it growing out of the same transaction. He gave bonds for his appearance.

Patsy Morrissey, an Omaha lad, who came over here Saturday, and was on a little spree, did not appear in police court yesterday morning, and his $10 forfeit money went to the city's till. It appeared that Patsy seeing a man going along with a basket of meat on his shoulder, pushed the basket off in the mud—just for fun. It proved to be a $10 joke.

Servant girls are scarce, and good ones still more scarce. It is claimed that the Danish girls of the city, of whom there are a goodly number, have organized a league, and struck, the wages claimed by them being $3.50 per week as the lowest, and $4.00 for those capable of doing general housework. Those who employ girls in their homes are wild about it, but they seem helpless.

A howl is raised because one of the women of the town went to church Sunday night. So long as she behaved herself properly there seems little occasion for any such howl. The churches are supposed at least to be for the saving of sinners, though many of them have wandered away from that idea. Moody, the great evangelist, invites such fallen ones to come to his services, and the great teacher declared he came not to call the righteous, but the sinners to repentance.

Foster, the florist, on Harrison street, Council Bluffs, has the largest stock west of the Mississippi. Send for catalogue.

PERSONAL.

C. S. Clark, for a time city editor of The Nonpareil, and later on an Omaha paper, has now attached himself to The Globe, and will serve as its missionary in western Iowa.

W. S. Pickett, of Chicago, a well known agricultural implement man, was here yesterday. He sold of hay-knives alone $2,500 worth in the two cities, and says business prospects here are brighter than in most places he touches upon in his travels.

Con Seidenstricker, of Plattsmouth, yesterday took a whole line of the Pacific house register.

John T. Stuart, of Shenandoah, was at the Pacific yesterday, and was greeted by many of his old friends.

J. M. Wolf, of Chicago, is at Bechtel's.

G. H. Drake, of Sterling, arrived at Bechtel's yesterday.

St. Louis was represented at Bechtel's yesterday by L. Jacoby.

R. P. Searies, of Meriden, Conn., was among yesterday's arrivals at the Ogden.

Wm. A. Redick, an Omaha attorney, visited this side on legal business yesterday.

Morris Rosenfield, of New York, reached the Ogden yesterday.

Rev. Mr. Bates, pastor of the Presbyterian church, has gone to Columbus, O., on a brief trip.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Michaels returned from the east yesterday.

W. J. Jackman, of the Omaha Herald, was here yesterday looking at the growth of the city. Council Bluffs folks did not greet him very cordially, for on his last trip he wrote up an article abusing the city, and calling all of its inhabitants "web-footed." That "web-footed" appellation has blighted Jackman's show for popularity here.

Major Moore, of Lincoln, spent Sunday here looking over the water works, and consulting with Harry Birkinbine about some of its peculiar advantages, with a view of adopting some of them at Lincoln.

Emil Berger, one of Davenport's liveliest traveling men, arrived at Bechtel's last night.

LABOR AROUSED.

Shall Muscle Be Set Aside for the Steam Shovel.

A Meeting to Be Called at the Court House To-night.

The recent request of J. J. Brown for a permit to use a steam shovel, temporary track, dirt cars and other mechanical appliances for shoveling the bluffs into the bottom lands has called forth a storm of indignation among the workmen. The plan proposed by Mr. Brown is to lay temporary tracks on any street so as to carry the dirt from the bluffs by rail to any of the streets and lots needing filling and thus do by steam what is now being done by shovels and wagons. The request of Mr. Brown has been so far acquiesced in by the council as to have an ordinance prepared granting him the necessary permit. As this ordinance has been laid over under the rules, M. A. Moore, another well-known contractor, has asked for a similar right, and his name has been joined with that of Mr. Brown in the proposed ordinance. It is declared by some that the scheme is impracticable, and that if the right was granted it would never be used. Others predict that the ordinance will on its second reading be referred to a committee and quietly pocketed never to be heard from again.

The workmen do not propose to take any chances, however, and they are much stirred up about the prospect of the teams being kept idle, while the dirt is hauled by railway, and a meeting has been called for this evening at the court house to discuss this and other questions of interest to the men of muscle.

The filling in of streets and lots has helped out many a teamster and workman during the winter, in which little or no work could be done, has made all realize how much the workmen have been dependent upon the street work, and this makes them all the more wrathful at any intimation, that the work is to be taken away, and given to steam.

There are other features of the street work which ought to be considered and discussed. The letting of work to contractors has been attended with many perplexities and hardships to the workmen. The city council has by its loose way of doing business made it uncertain whether property owners are liable for the payment of the filling or whether the city is. This uncertainty as to who is to pay has made it impossible for the contractor to fix the price at from 30 to 60 per cent above what they would do the same work for on a cash basis. As a result, those who have means to spare enter into private agreements with contractors, by which they get the filling in front of their property done at a much lower price than the contract calls for, and paying cash they hold the certificates of assessments against their own property.

If in the future the courts should decide that the property is not liable, but that the city must pay for the work out of the general fund, then these wealthy property-owners will present these certificates to the city and demand payment for full contract price, making a handsome profit. The poor man with his little home cannot so easily discount the certificate of assessment, and hence is at a disadvantage, for if the property is liable, he will be compelled to pay full contract price. Those who can pay cash for filling have got their work done cheap enough, but those who cannot have to pay a large margin. In case these amounts finally have to be paid out of the general fund, the poor man's home will be taxed to pay for the profit which accrues to those who have "shaved" these certificates of assessment.

While contracts have been let at twenty-five to thirty-five cents a load, the teamsters have been getting about fifteen cents a load, so that they get little out of the improvements, in comparison to what those who get so idly by and discount the certificates of assessments.

The workmen here have a big field here for practical thought and talk concerning street improvements, besides the new dirt railway which is now proposed. One of the moves made should be to wait on the city council, so arranging its contracts and hands as to give the men who do the work some assurance of getting their pay. Some of those who have been promised $1.50 a day have been obliged to take orders on stores, and have thus had goods forced on them when they could have used the cash to better advantage. Others have been defrauded entirely out of their wages.

Personal—The gentleman, who, on Saturday morning called near Bayless park and made an offer on the household goods need not return for them as they were purchased by Mr. A. J. Mandel, who gave a much higher price for them.

NEW HOSE COMPANY.

Completion of the Organization of the Mayor's Running Team.

A meeting of the W. R. Vaughan hose company was held on Saturday night. The action of the council in recognizing the company as a volunteer part of the fire department was reported. This recognition is necessary sixty days before the company may be admitted to contest for the prizes. The company is virtually a running team, and expects to carry off a number of the prizes at the tournament at Des Moines June 8.

At this meeting F. H. Guanello was chosen chairman and W. R. Brown secretary. On motion of Jesse Walters the rules and regulations of the Bluffs City hose company were adopted as those of the Vaughan hose company. C. W. Mitchell and J. D. Nicholson were appointed a committee to look after the securing of a room for the use of the company. On motion of Chas. Nicholson it was decided to give a May-pole party on the evening of May 1st, and a committee was appointed to complete arrangements, the chairman being Wm. Lacy, J. D. Nicholson, W. R. Brown, C. W. Mitchell and Bruce Hower. The price of tickets was placed at fifty cents.
